Foreword

We realize that these years in school are but minutes on the great grandfather clock of life, but they are some of the most precious minutes we shall ever know.

As we face the consolidation project now under way, we also face the end of something we hold very dear - Jefferson High School. In this, the last edition of the Jeffersonian, we hope we can present some of the things we saw when we were taking our last look at our beloved school. In this last glimpse we saw Jefferson High School of 1956, but we also saw the school of the past where we have worked and played.

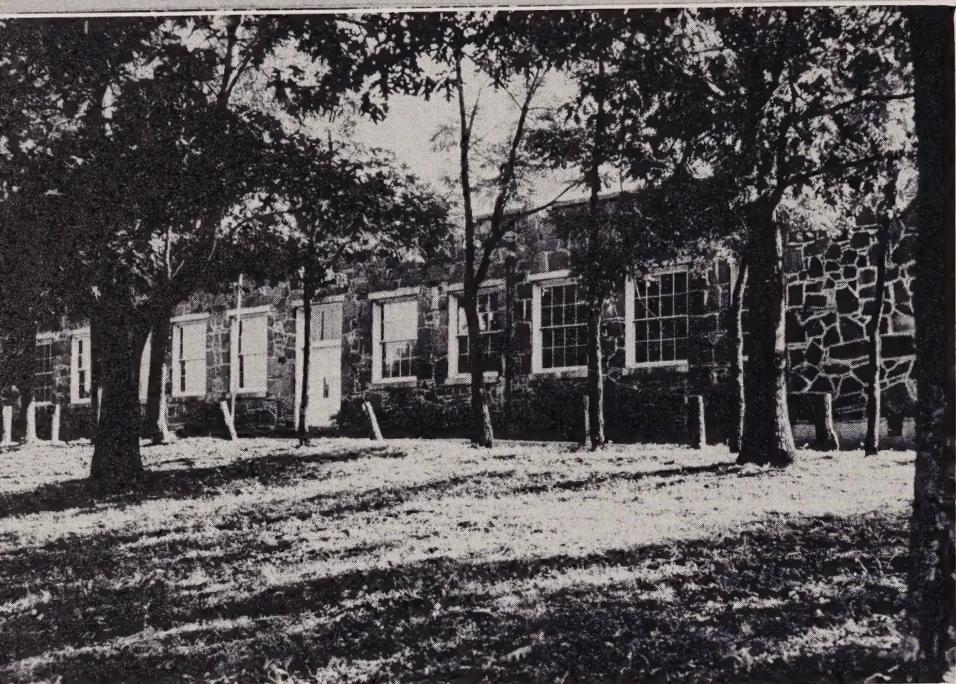

We shall record some of our memories of our school years here. These memories are so numerous and so assorted that we can only give a few of them, but we hope that the most important ones are retained by those who witnessed them.

"Wait, thou child of hope, for time shall teach thee all things."

Thus we present-

The Jeffersonian

1957

Time has no divisions to mark its passage

We Dedicate . . .

With our deepest thanks and appreciation we dedicate this, the last edition of the Jeffersonian, to one, who during our four years in high school, has become a symbol of everything we admire and respect---
Mrs. Gertrude Vaught.

The Class of '57

In the Beginning . . .

Freshmen

In the fall of 1952, 72 dutiful students entered Jefferson High School as Freshmen. We were very happy that we had at long last reached this phase of our educations. It took us a while to become adjusted to the ways of the student in high school, but it was not long before we were doing our part in the various extracurricular activities.

We chose our class officers for the year, who were:

RAYCHELLA SHEETS.....President
K. O. LAUGHON.....Vice-President
DOROTHY LITTLE.....Secretary
BEVERLY LITTLE.....Treasurer

By the end of our Freshmen year, we were doing our best to make a name for ourselves in basketball, dramatics, cheerleading, debating, F.F.A. contests, and in the various school clubs.

A Change Occurs . . .

Sophomores

Time passed on, silently and steadily, until all of a sudden we were Sophomores. This year we were 64 pupils strong, and with a year's experience behind us, we felt more secure and were more determined to outdo any other class in all phases of high school work and activities.

Our officers for that year were:

K. O. LAUGHON.....	President
JOHNNY MARSH.....	Vice-President
JIMMY BOWER.....	Secretary
BILLY WADE BARE.....	Treasurer

Our efforts to gain recognition were rewarded when a number of our class were elected to offices in the various school organizations. A few of us won parts in several plays that year, and several promising athletes emerged from our ranks.

The Hour is Near . . .

Juniors

The clocks kept ticking and time kept passing until suddenly our Junior year unfolded before us. We were all very excited and happy as we pictured in our minds the many exciting activities that were to face us that year. Our class had lost 10 pupils, leaving 54.

Our class officers were:

K. O. LAUGHON.....	President
JOHNNY MARSH.....	Vice-President
DOROTHY LITTLE.....	Secretary
CHERYL PAYNE.....	Treasurer

We began work immediately raising money for the Junior-Senior Banquet. We sold Christmas cards and conducted a scrap paper drive to raise most of the needed funds, although a goodly amount was made by several other methods. The theme for our banquet was a "Southern Plantation", and through the organized efforts of everyone in the class we did a beautiful job of decorating for it. We were very proud to feel that it was a complete success. At the end of our Junior year we took part in the graduating exercises, which made us suddenly aware that we were nearing the end of our high school educations. Time had passed so fast!

And Then At Last . . .

Seniors

We couldn't believe we were Seniors. The steady march of time had brought us to this position before we had expected it. Our graduating class is composed of 47 students.

The class officers for our last year are:

K. O. LAUGHON.....	President
BILLY WADE BARE.....	Vice-President
RETHA STANSBERRY.....	Secretary
CHERYL PAYNE.....	Treasurer

We ordered our class rings immediately after school started, and we were very happy when we received them on November 21.

The yearbook staff was chosen, which consisted of: Geneva Leek, K. O. Laughon, Retha Stansberry, Billy Wade Bare, Dorothy Little, Kenneth Stanley, Raychella Sheets, Robert Bare, Linda Little, and Glenn Barker.

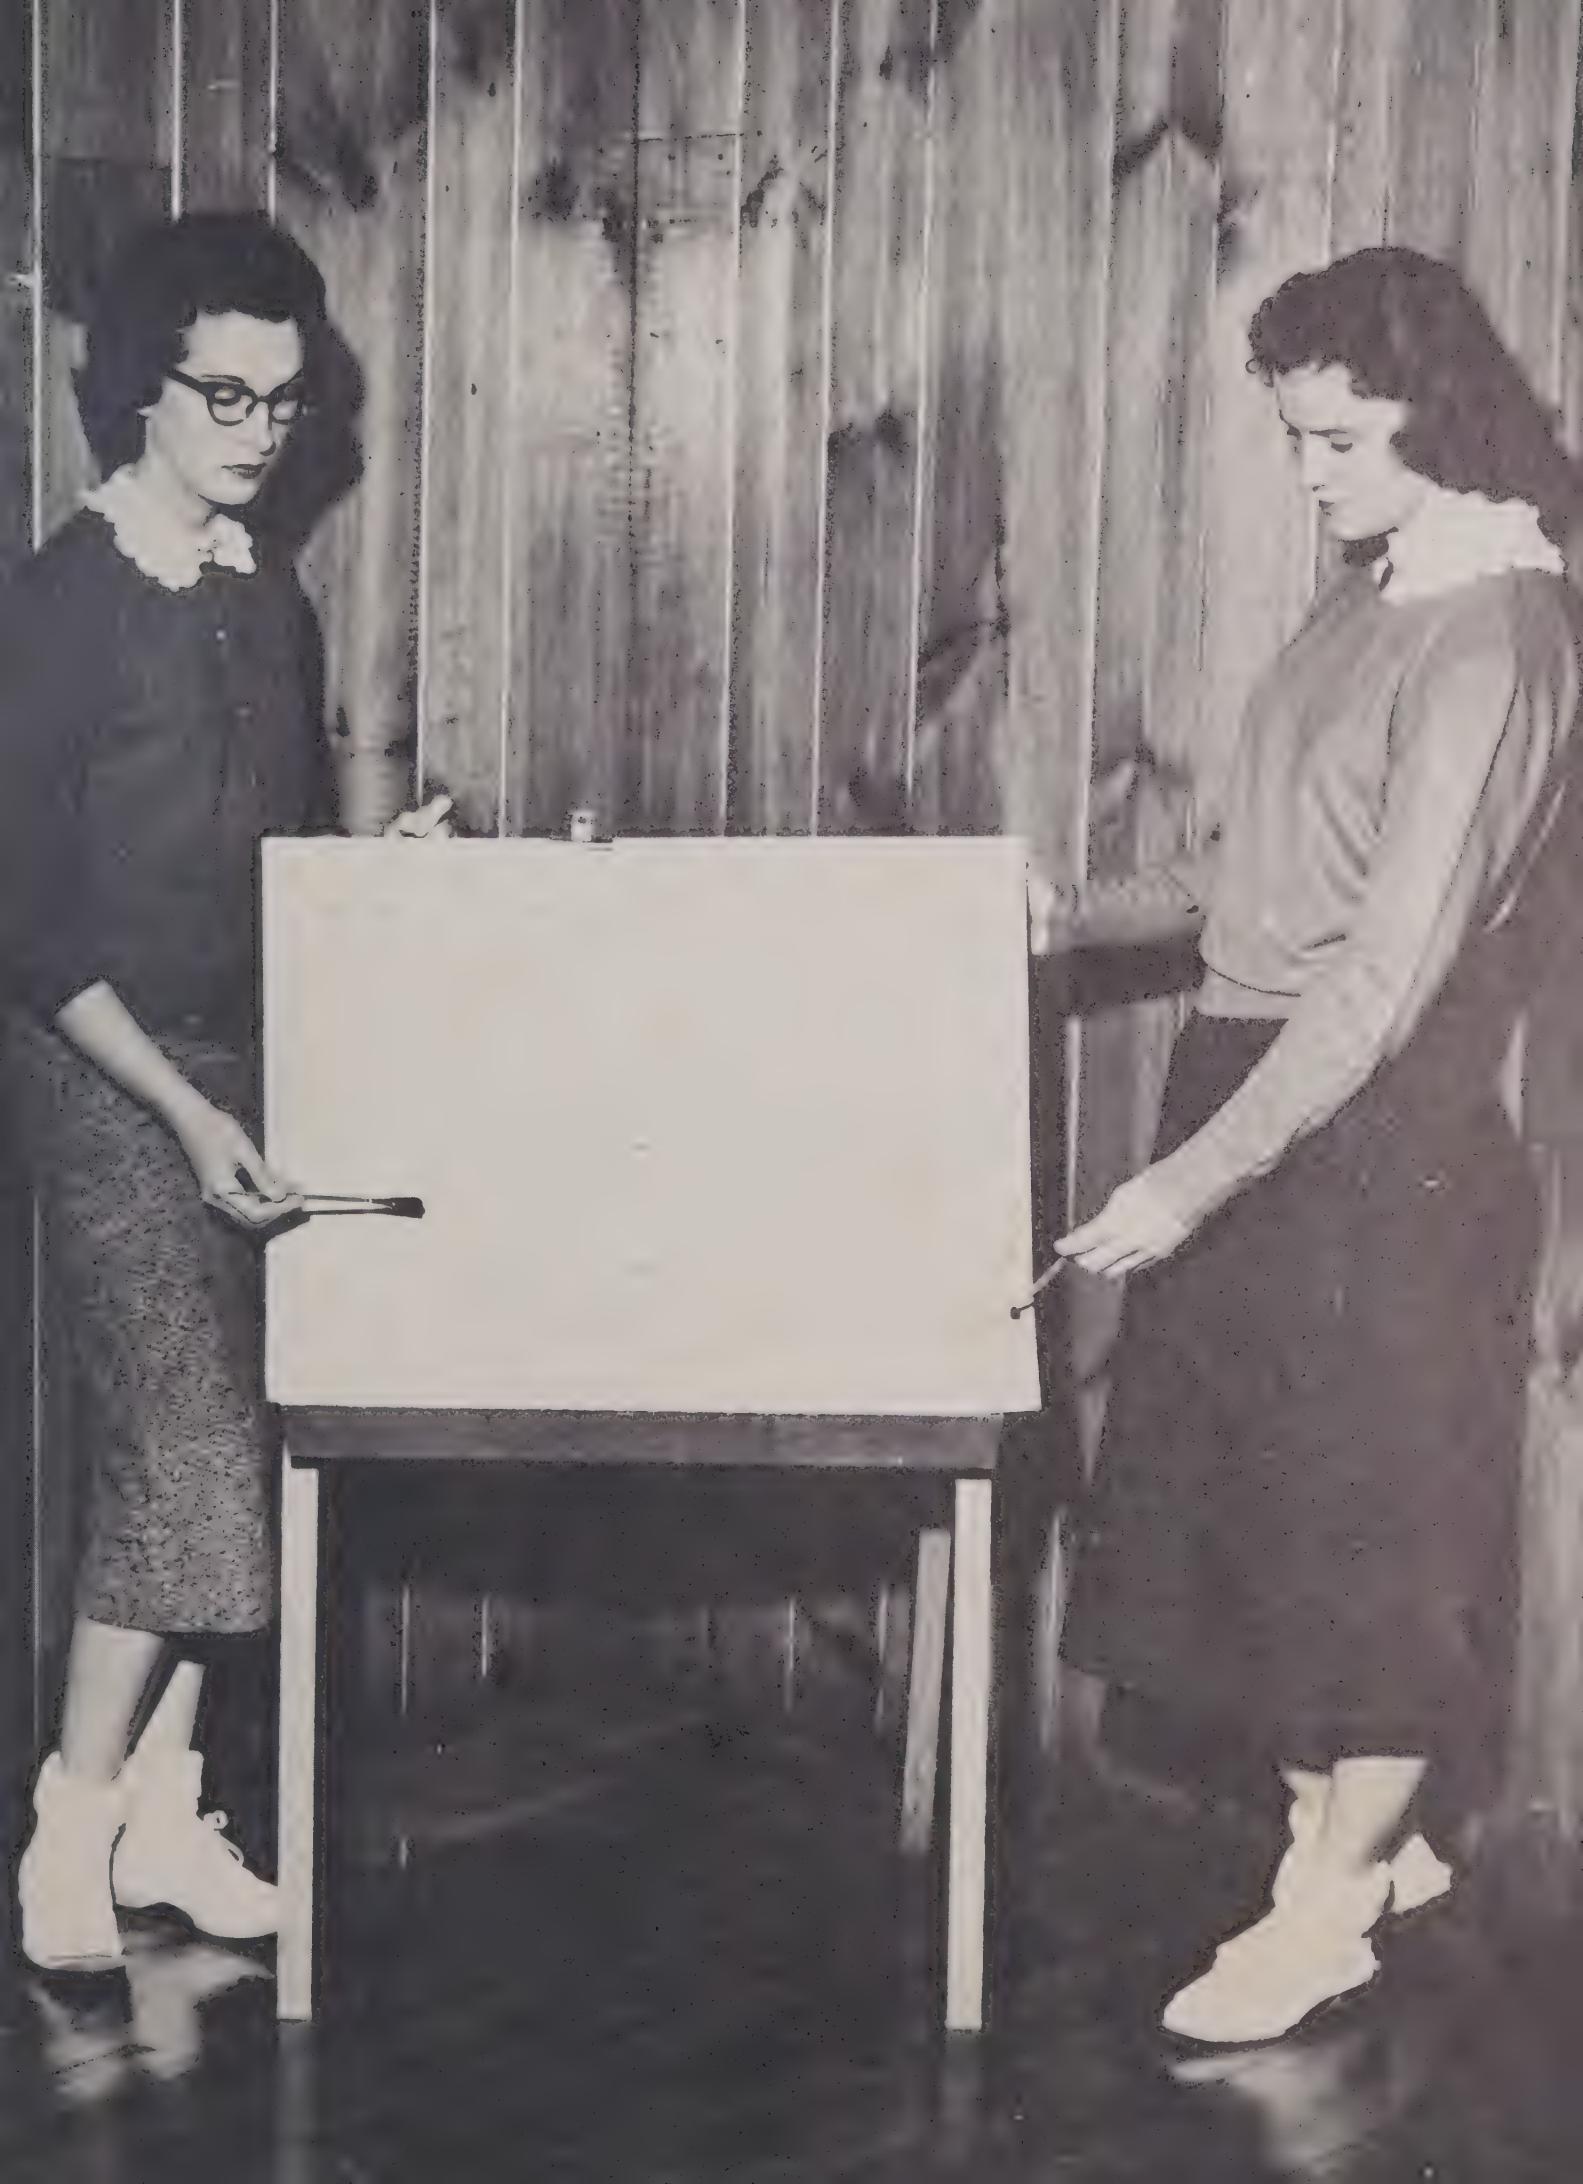

In basketball, several Seniors are prominent. Linda Little, Betty Sue Mash, Betty Lou Phillips, and Rosa Maynarich are on the girls' team, and Dennis Miller, Kenneth Stanley, Robert Bare, and Billy Dean Testerman are on the boys' team.

Nina Goss, Cheryl Payne, Geneva Leek, Retha Stansberry, and Raychella Sheets are on the cheerleading squad.

Geneva Leek, Billy Wade Bare, Johnny Marsh, and K. O. Laughon had parts in the play which represented Jefferson in the Ashe County Dramatics Festival. The play was given an "excellent" rating.

Our class is also prominent in F.F.A. contests, in the Dramatics Club, and in the Beta Club.

Thus ends the history of the Senior Class of 1957. It has not all been fun. Hard work has prepared us for the hardships we shall encounter on the road to success in the life ahead of us. Jefferson School, we thank you for this wonderful phase of our lives.

CLASS POEM

TO OUR ALMA MATER

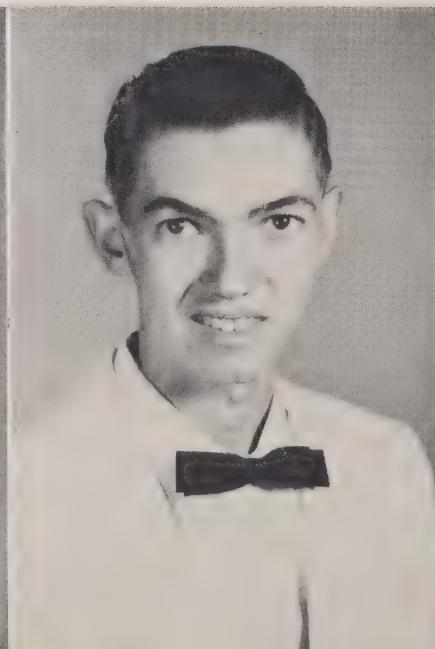

To Jefferson High School we give our praise,
For it is here that we have spent our happiest days.
This is the school that has labored long,
To produce men and women learned and strong.
This is the school with teachers so nice;
Who remember the virtue and forget the vice.
This is the school where underclassmen are kindest;
Who love and are loved with a love that is blindest.
This is the school where hearts are lightest;
Where students' ambitions shine the brightest.
Then in sorrow or joy, in labor or rest,
We'll remember Jefferson as being the best.

PROPHECY

The parents of some members of the class of '57 were giving a going-away party for the ones who were going to college or various other places. All the class had been invited and all 47 were there. As a part of the entertainment, I had suggested that a gypsy fortune-teller, Madame Suerte, come to tell our fortunes. She had foreseen my future a few months previous and had told me that someday I would be a renowned historian doing work on Tibet and the people there. Now the time had come for her to appear on the program. We sat down around a circular table, with the lights dimmed. She gazed into her crystal ball and spoke:

Geneva Leek, I see a great humanitarian effort on your part to help the children of the world by spending your life as a psychologist. Your friends, Yvonne Taylor and Julia Walters, will spend their lives as missionaries. Yvonne, In Central America; and Julia giving medical aid to the people of India. Betty Barker will spend part of her life in India helping Julia nurse the natives.

My crystal ball continues on around the world to the dark continent of Africa. There, near the pyramids of Egypt, I find Cheryl Payne, world famous archeologist and traveler. With her is her secretary-companion, Linda Little, who accompanies Cheryl on her long journeys around the globe. Now and then, when they are on the North American continent, they often run into Raychella Sheets, now Mrs. Max Hurley, and her husband, who travel all over the U.S.A. in their Thunderbird and their streamlined trailer.

In Paris, I find Carol Trivette, who is studying commercial art. Glenn Barker is also there perfecting his art techniques which are already famous. Also, in France, you will find Dorothy Little tutoring French children in the art of speaking English. She excelled in French and English in high school and is taking advantage of her knowledge. Across the Channel, my spirits show me an airplane descending from the fog. Wait--yes, it's flown by Darrell Witherspoon, and the very charming hostess is Bobbie Sue Barker.

I see Johnnie Badger in Italy making a tour with his famous sports car in which he has won many races, both in Europe and America.

In Germany my spirits tell me, Dennis Miller will spend the large part of his army career as a sergeant. Stationed near him is Kenneth Stanley, one of the test pilots in the U.S.A.F. doing important, extensive research on a new type of jet bomber.

My crystal ball is taking me to New York now. There I see Billy Wade Bare, the part-owner of the Brooklyn Dodgers. He is also a well-known millionaire and philanthropist. His charming secretary is a former classmate, Shirley Severt, who is also married.

Working as a lab technician in a hospital in New York City is Bobbie Sluder, who also has a home in the suburbs with two nice children. A friend, Betty Lou Phillips is still single and is working in the same hospital in which Bobbie Lou is, as a medical record librarian.

On duty in the Great Lakes is Don Mason. Don is now in the Navy and is chief petty officer on one of our country's largest ships. I see that not very far from Don is Geneva Turner, in Milwaukee. She is a very famous sports writer for the Milwaukee Braves.

I think I see out in Nevada, K. O. Laughon. He is working as a part of a government team of electronic engineers planning defense measures for our nation. Near him, is a unit of the S.A.C. Bill Johnsey is an important part of this unit as a radar observer.

Jimmy Dancy is racing all over the west in stock car races. Bill Testerman is traveling with Jimmy as his chief mechanic. They have visited Claudene Roten and her family, who are making their home in the west. Johnny Lyall lives near her. He is a mechanical engineer and is in great demand because of his excellent work.

I see that Anna Miller is a pharmacist in her own drug store in northern California. She's quite successful. Rose Marie Woodie is her very busy bookkeeper.

Over in the Hawaiian Islands, I see Robert Bare, who is in the Army. He is a major, but working upward to the day he will be a general. Rosa Maynarich is also in the Islands. She's just been stationed at the WAC unit there.

Stateside again I see Nina Goss in Hollywood, California, working as a beautician in one of the television studios. Barbara McClure is working as a script girl at a movie studio on a picture being filmed.

Now, the spirits bring me back to North Carolina to show me the future of those who remained here. Carl Mash is a successful business man in North Carolina. His cousin, Lenville, owns and operates Southern Produce Co. His right-hand man is a lady--Marcellus Bard, who is his secretary.

Bernard Roten is a retired jet pilot and is writing his memoirs. His personal secretary, who is compiling the information, is Ella Sue Caudill.

Betty Sue Mash and Linda Greene are happy wives and mothers. They are also both working at Hanes Knitting Mill. Sadie Smith is an office worker there making out the payrolls every month.

Peggy Saultz is teaching in Ashe Central High School. She is teaching typing, stenography, and business math. Bronda Miller, who is a nurse in Ashe Memorial Hospital, comes to Central every week to give lessons in First Aid.

Cleda Mullis is quite a successful housewife with several children. Near her, Peggy Bare and her husband have a new tea shop which will probably prove to be popular.

A man who has really contributed much to Ashe County is John Marsh. He is a famous electronics engineer, who has erected a radio station and tower in Jefferson. This has proved to be quite valuable to the citizens of Ashe County."

Madame Suerte looked up from her crystal ball and said, "That is all; I must go." She left, and as we watched her disappear, we wondered if what she had foretold was really the future or just a dream. Ah, well! As a famous Shakespearean character said to another fortune-teller--"If you can look into the seeds of time and say which grain will grow and which will not--."

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We the forty-seven members of the class of '57, being of sound mind and good physical condition do hereby make the following bequests!

SECTION I

Article I To our beloved principal, Mr. R. O. Jackson, and the highschool teachers, we leave our deepest appreciation for helping this far with our education.

SECTION II

Article I We bequeath to the Junior Class, all the privileges, joys, and responsibilities of Seniorhood. They also fall heir to our English Books, which we love so dearly.

Article II We will all our eagerness and love for make-up work to the Sophomore Class.

Article III To the Freshmen Class, we leave our beauty and brains, and also our place in the lunchroom line, which they may have at Ashe Central.

SECTION III

I, Raychella Sheets, will all my pretty clothes to be equally divided among the Junior Girls.

We, Julia Walters and Don Mason, leave our "brains" to Evelyn Bower.

We, Cheryl Payne and Geneva Leek, leave our ability always to have a good time, and lead a hectic life, to Linda Fitzgerald.

I, Johnny Lyall, leave my "Mercury" to Dennis Witherspoon, so he can attend school every day.

We, Shirley Severt and Billy Johnsey, will our Senior Superlative, "Prettiest" to Katy Goodman and Barry Hudler.

I, Robert Bare, leave my driver's license and "hot-rod Ford", to Billy Dean Bowers.

We, Bobbie Lou Sluder and Yvonne Taylor, will our love for Chemistry to Melba Jenkins.

We, K. O. Laughon and Billy Bare, will our ability as "great-hot-rod-drivers," to anyone who thinks he can handle it.

We, Rose Marie Woodie and Carol Trivette, leave our very quiet ways to Mamie Mahala.

We, Billy Testerman and Bernard Roten, leave our ability to finish school to P. J. Eller and Jimmy Mullis.

We, Ella Sue Caudill and Peggy Bare, leave our handicap "shyness" to Mary Lynn Mash.

I, Carl Mash, leave my love to go "fox" and "Bare" hunting, to Wayne Miller.

We, Betty Lou Phillips and Linda Little, leave our ability to get a man and hold him to Marguerite Sheets.

I, Lenville Mash, leave my ability to drive under any circumstances, to Thomas Rash and John L. Sheets.

We, Dorothy Little and Anna Deane Miller, leave our neatness and ability to get along with everyone to Lula Belle Liddle.

We, Dennis Miller and Kenneth Stanley, leave our ability to play basketball to any boy that makes the team next year.

I, Retha Stansberry, leave my love for fun and for all things except Math, to Dorothy Dillard.

We, John Badger and John Marsh, leave our ability to visit the office each morning, to Chris Dundas.

We, Rosa Maynarich and Betty Sue Mash, leave our athletic ability to Polly Sexton.

We, Geneva Turner and Nina Goss, leave our love for the boys to Joyce Bower.

I, Jimmy Dancy, leave my ability to do nothing, to anyone who wants it.

We, Claudene Roten and Marcellus Bard, leave our love for typing, to Barbara Dillard.

I, Cleda Mullis, leave my ability to get married before finishing school, to Betty Sue Hart.

I, Darrell Witherspoon, leave my love for English, to W. D. Bare and R. J. Combs.

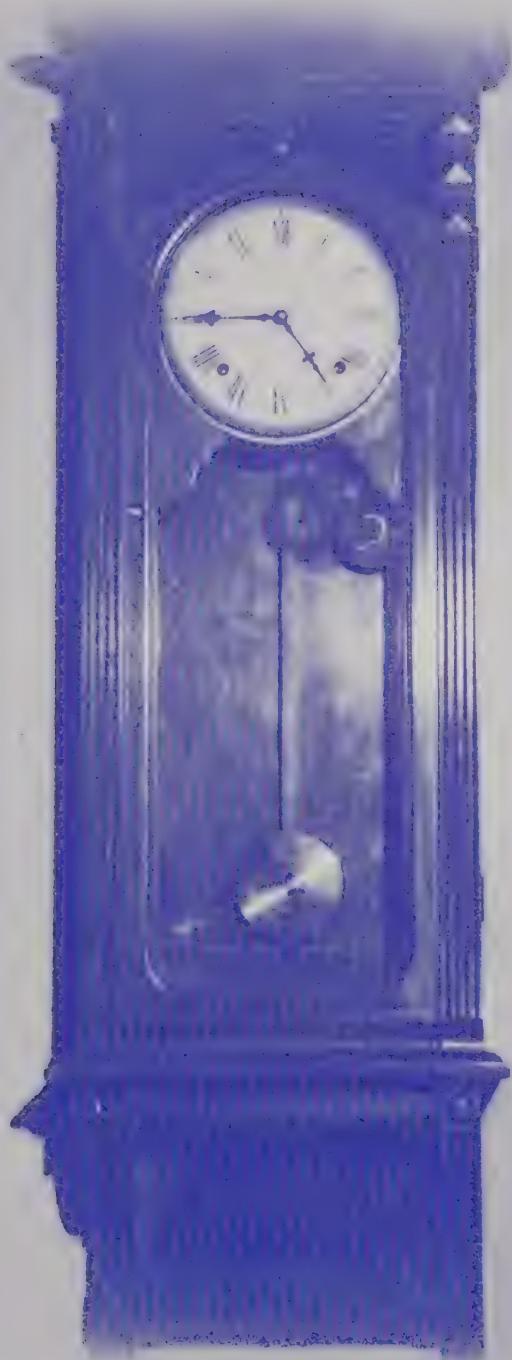

We, Linda Greene and Sadie Smith, leave our happy-go-lucky-ways, to Sally Bare.

I, Glenn Barker, leave my ability to love many, to Jimmy Blevins.

We, Bobbie Sue Barker and Barbara McClure, leave our quiet friendly ways to all the Junior Class.

This the twentieth day of December nineteen hundred and fifty six-

OUR SCHOOL SONG

Our dear old Jefferson High
Is a place we all admire.
No other school can compare
With the ball teams we have there.

Musical notation for the school song, featuring a treble clef, a key signature of A major (two sharps), and a common time signature. The melody consists of a series of eighth and sixteenth notes.

Our Alma Mater dear

We will cherish through the years,
Because old J.H.S. is always the best
From the north, south, east, or west. Rah! Rah!

Musical notation for the alma mater song, featuring a treble clef, a key signature of A major (two sharps), and a common time signature. The melody consists of a series of eighth and sixteenth notes.

And so in days to come
For memories we'll recall.
But memories of dear J.H.S.
We will cherish most of all.

Musical notation for the memories song, featuring a treble clef, a key signature of A major (two sharps), and a common time signature. The melody consists of a series of eighth and sixteenth notes.

Our colors are white and blue
And for these we'll fight so true,
So let the people see from here on in
Our teams will surely win, win, win. Rah! Rah!

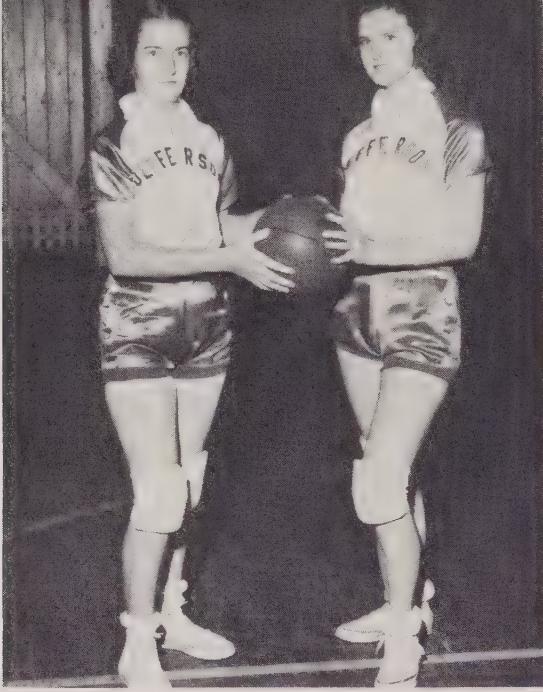

Musical notation for the colors song, featuring a treble clef, a key signature of A major (two sharps), and a common time signature. The melody consists of a series of eighth and sixteenth notes.

There's a new kind of power at your finger tips in the Oliver "OC-3". You can go where you want to go! Its sure-footedness takes you through snow and mud without stalling—up and down steep pitches in safety. Its light-footedness takes you over sand and muck without miring.

Oliver "OC-3" Crawlers are built in four tread widths—31, 42, 60 and 68 inches—for general work, row crop farming, and for orchard, grove and vineyard duty. Besides, there's a broad line of mounted and pull behind implements and auxiliary equipment that fit it. Start making your tough acres pay out—with an "OC-3".

Jefferson High School

The Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, aided in the erection of the buildings and in the maintenance of the Jefferson High School, which had its early beginning in the summer of 1910.

Mrs. Eula J. Neal, mother of Mrs. W. B. Austin, Charlie, and Wirt Neal of Jefferson, donated the grounds; a beautiful knoll that overlooks the village. At that time it was covered with a grove of oaks and chestnuts, which gave the setting a natural beauty unsurpassed by modern landscapes.

Two brick buildings were erected for dormitories; one for girls, while one was used for classrooms. On the hill where the Ashe Hospital now stands was a large frame building which was used as a boys' dormitory.

The school was first opened for students in September, 1913. Since then there has been a steady growth, not only in the number of students, but in the character of the work done and in the far reaching influence of the school.

The dormitory life of the students was carefully supervised; as no doubt many of Ashe County's citizens will tell you today.

The Methodist Conference abandoned plans for a Junior College here and the school became a state supported high school in 1927.

Nevertheless, it is the aim of the school to grow bigger and better, and since the high school is moving to a new location and consolidating with Healing Springs and Nathan's Creek, we can say again how grateful we are to those men: Mr. Walter H. Worth, G. L. Park, Dr. J. W. Colvard, F. H. Neal and others that made it possible for boys and girls to have a chance to get a high school education here at home.

The village will miss the big boys and girls, but in the words of Omar, the tentmaker, --"The moving finger writes and moves on; Nor all your piety nor wit shall lure it back to cancel half a line Nor all your tears wash out a drop of it."

MAMIE SMITHEY

The old order changeth; yielding place to the new.
